

1º Festival da Lusofonia Goa 2015

22/02/2015

A Sociedade Lusófona de Goa (LSG) está a organizar o primeiro “Festival da Lusofonia Goa 2015”. De 20 de Fevereiro a 20 de Março realizar-se-ão diversos eventos culturais visando promover a cultura dos países e regiões lusófonas focando este ano Angola, Brasil, Cabo Verde, Macau, Portugal e Timor Leste.

Do programa do Festival merece destaque a Exposição de Fotografias “Voyage to the East in the 19th Century” com fotografias de século 19.

Uma coleção extraordinária de fotografias dos primeiros tempos da técnica da fotografia. Desde Lisboa a Timor passando pelo Canal de Suez, o Egipto, Mumbai, Goa, Damão, Nagar-Aveli, Sri Lanka e Indonésia. Esta exposição foi organizada pela LSG em colaboração com a Direção Regional de Cultura Norte – Museu de Lamego (Portugal), Directorate of Art and Culture (Goa), Goa Tourism Development Corporation e a Fundação Oriente.

LUSOFONIA FESTIVAL GOA 2015

PROGRAMME

FEBRUARY 20 TO MARCH 20, 2015

organized by Lusophone Society of Goa (LSG)

info@lusophonegoa.org

Photography exhibition “Voyage to the East in the 19th Century”. Photographies of the 19th Century

Fundação Oriente, Fontainhas, Panjim

Inauguration on February 20, 5.30 pm at Fundação Oriente

Opening time: Feb 21 to March 10, from 10 am to 5 pm, Sundays closed. Entry free.

An extraordinary collection of photographies from the time of earliest photography techniques. From Lisbon to Timor crossing the Suez Canal and passing through Egypt, Mumbai, Goa, Daman, Nagar Haveli, Shri Lanka, Indonesia. Exhibition organized by LSG – Lusophone Society of Goa, in collaboration with the Directorate of Culture North, Museum of Lamego (Portugal), Directorate of Art and Culture (Goa), Goa Tourism Development Corporation and Fundação Oriente.

Presentation “Some experiences of Architectural Conservation in Portugal and in Goa”

Arch. Gerson Rei (Coimbra – Portugal) and Arch. Ketak Nachinolkar (Goa – India)

February 24, 5.00 pm.

Lecture Hall, Goa State Central Library, Patto, Panjim. Entry free

The authors will give examples of conservation in Portugal and in Goa for a better understanding of similarities and different points of view.

Photography exhibition “A glimpse of Macau”

Inauguration with the presence of the author Margarida Fernandes on March 7, 5.30 pm at Art Gallery, Sanskruti Bhavan, Patto, Panjim

Opening time: March 8 to 19, from 10 am to 5 pm, every day. Entry free.

The Photographies of Margarida Fernandes give a good perspective of the daily life in Macau. The author was able to catch the special extraordinary mixture of Chinese and Portuguese culture in Macau: the city has a decidedly European ambiance although most of the people who live there are Chinese. There are a number of celebrations which combine both Portuguese and Chinese customs so you will be able to see things in the photographs exposed that you wouldn't see anywhere else.

“Brazilian Sweet Dishes Class”

Verna, February 25, 9.30 am

Previous registration required. Call 9763365050

Demonstration class by Brazilian ladies. Learn how to prepare the very traditional Brazilian sweets Quindão, Banana Pie, Broa Caxambu, Brigadeiro and Queijadinha.

Photography exhibitions on Angola and Timor Leste

Ray's Atelier – Art Gallery, Colva, Entry free

“A Touristic glance of East Timor: the country and the people” (March 16 to 20) and “Angola: landscape, people and development” (March 9 to 14)

“Lusophone Day” at Goa Multifaculty College, Dharbandora/Ponda, March 13

Fest “Feijoada and Samba”

February 28 (Saturday), 8 pm SHARP, at Clube Harmonia de Margao, Margao.

Tickets (includes one portion of Brazilian Feijoada) available at: PANJIM: mobile counter contact 9822736782, MARGAO: Clube Harmonia Ph: 2714818

Enjoy Brazilian food (Brazilian Feijoada, Pão de Queijo, Muqueca), Brazilian drinks (Caipirinha, Batida), Cape Verde food (Cachupa), Angolan food (Mufete), Portuguese Bolinhos de Bacalhau. Try dancing Samba, Quizomba, Kuduro, Zumba... Brazilian and Angolan music. Comperes: João Brás (Angola) and Solania (Brazil). Reasonable prices.

Fonte: LSG-Sociedade Lusófona de Goa