

April 3, 2015

Lusophone Day celebrated at Goa Multi-Faculty College

NT KURIOCITY

The Lusophone Society of Goa in collaboration with Goa Multi-Faculty College, Dharbandora, organised the Lusophone Day, at the college, as part of the on-going 1st Lusofonia Festival Goa 2015. The Portuguese language students, under the guidance of their Portuguese teacher, Loraine Alberto, presented a well organised variety programme, which consisted of a welcome dance, poems, legends, dialogue and song, covering all the Lusophone countries. Besides this, there was also a poster competition, depicting the culture, tradition, cuisine, etcetera of these Lusophone countries. Present on this occasion were the president of the Lusophone Society of Goa, Aurobindo Xavier and Maureen Alvares. Xavier addressed the students and lauded their efforts. Xavier and Alvares, gave away certificates to the students. The officiating principal, Manasvi Kamat, appreciated the student's efforts and thanked Xavier, Alvares and Alberto, for having association with the college. The programme was compered by Pradip Gaonkar and Shreya Naik. The function ended with a vote of thanks by Loraine Alberto.